Policies on Conflict of Interest, Human and Animal Rights, and Informed Consent

Declaration of Interest

All authors must disclose any financial and personal relationships with other people or organizations that could inappropriately influence (bias) their work. Examples of potential conflicts of interest include employment, consultancies, stock ownership, honoraria, paid expert testimony, patent applications/registrations, and grants or other funding. If there are no conflicts of interest then please state this: “Conflicts of interest: none”.

Policies on Humans and Animals Right

All human and animal studies must be approved by an appropriate ethics committee or review board (depending on local arrangements), and a statement to this effect should be included in the methods section, or the reasons why it was not necessary if this is the case. All clinical investigations must have been conducted according to the principles expressed in the Declaration of Helsinki (<http://www.wma.net>).

Informed Consent

All authors must read the journal’s policy and manuscript must be read and double checked by all the contributing authors before submitting to the journal.
